Subj: AUXILIARY ELECTION ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA REVISION -009/08

1. In February 2007, ALAUX 003/07 identified changes to Auxiliary election eligibility criteria. One aspect of those changes was that the Administrative Procedures Course (APC) became the only acceptable course in order to meet election eligibility criteria, and that for elections to be held in 2007, and 2007 only, waiver was granted to accept successful completion of the Elected Officers Course (EOC) or the AUXMIN specialty course.

2. Upon further review, and in consultation with Auxiliary national leadership, this aspect of election eligibility criteria is changed as follows:

Beginning with elections in 2008, the APC is a specific election eligibility requirement for any Auxiliarist for whom this would be a first elected office (level of office does not matter). The EOC and AUXMIN are only acceptable (i.e. - "grandfathered") for Auxiliarists who have held any elected office in the past.

3. This change will be reflected in the next revision to the Auxiliary Manual.

4. The purpose of this list is to keep Auxiliarists as well as all other interested parties abreast of current developments, policies, manuals, etc. All information contained herein and linked is OFFICIAL policy and information.
